DETAILED ACTION

Election Acknowledgment

1. Acknowledgment is made of the election of group I claims 1-10, without traverse, the non-elected claims 11-20 are withdrawn from the consideration. The non-elected claims should be canceled by the Application during the prosecution of this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Akram et al.

Akram et al., discloses a pressure sensitive mechanism with features of the claimed invention including a substrate, a piezo-resistive, contact pressure layer, an insulating layer and a conductive layer (see, for example, claim 19).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2-4, 9-10, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Akram et al, in view of Beitman.

Akram does not elaborate on the nature of the piezoelectric material. Such material, however, can perform and be of semiconductor nature. For example, Beitman discloses a semiconductor accelerometer teaching the fact that the piezoelectric layer is in fact a semiconductor (see, for example, claim 2). It would have been obvious for a skilled artisan at the time of the invention to modify Akram et al., using teaching of Beitman to provide for semiconductor element for piezo-resistive layer in order to obtain the full effect of the such structure. Moreover, most of the semiconductor or piezo material are from Mendeleev table.

6. Claims 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Akram et al, in view of Finder et al.

Akram et al., is silent in the nature semiconductors, however, Aluminum gallium Arsenide is notoriously known to be one of the material used in semiconductors. Finder discloses an acoustic wave device teaching the use of multilayer structure and thus use of such semiconductor device (see col. 3, line 1-). It would have been obvious; therefore, for a skilled artisan at the time of the invention to modify Akram to use such semiconductor structure since the cited art makes it clear that use of such material is well known in the art.

Art Unit: 2855

7. Claim 8 is objected to because of the temperature layer and as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
